

BLOCKADED

Every Household in Barre Should Know How to Resist It.

The back aches because the kidneys are blocked.
Help the kidneys with their work.
The back will ache no more.
Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.
It's the best proof, for it comes from Barre.

C. A. Churchill, 35 Merchant street, Barre, Vt., says: "I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills in 1897 after I had taken them a short time and had found the best of results. After that, I continued their use and was entirely relieved of backaches, pains across my loins and other symptoms of kidney trouble. During the time that has since elapsed, I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions, getting them at Dr. Brown's drug store, and the same good results have always been received. I have also advised their use to friends and acquaintances whom I have heard complaining of backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

W. B. Jones, superintendent at the Grange-Buckett Granite company, sheds, is said to have lately purchased the interest in the plant of Mrs. W. N. Grange-Kendall, now of Vancouver, B. C.

John Wilcox of our construction firm went to Montpelier on Thursday last to see his wife at the Boston hospital. We were told that up to that day no surgical operation had been performed in Mrs. Wilcox's case.

Mrs. Carl W. Seaver learns that her brother, Howell Roberts, now of Granville, N. Y., is very ill with typhoid fever at his home. Since an operation for appendicitis a few years ago, he has had a good deal of poor health.

In the Times of Wednesday, January 6, was a mistake in stating that our Grange-Buckett Granite company would raise its stock from $5,000 to $25,000. We are told here that it should have read "from $20,000 to $25,000."

In correction of an error recently found in our items, we would say that Mrs. Harriet Parminter, who died here on Sunday, January 1, was a pensioner of the Mexican war, that was waged in 1840 and 1847. She married for her second husband a man who had been a soldier in that war. Mrs. Parminter was in her 80th year and by far the larger portion of her life was lived elsewhere than here.

Mrs. William N. Granger, who has lived on the Pacific coast since the death a few years ago of her husband, has recently married a Mr. Kendall of Vancouver, B. C., a widower with five children. This woman was held in very high esteem in the years she lived here. She and her first husband came here from New Brunswick at about the time the establishment of the granite industry in our village, and to Mr. Granger our place has been largely indebted in the line of granite manufacturing. A host of good wishes will ever go out to Mrs. Granger-Kendall from here. Since she first came here her father's family has largely gone to the Pacific coast to live.

John F. Perkins of Brookfield has just given us a rich treat, viz., the opportunity for perusal of copies of The Vermont Watchman, published in Montpelier by Samuel Goss in 1890; also of The Vermont Journal, published in Windsor by Wyman Spooner in 1890; and, lastly, of The Weekly Wanderer, published at Randolph Center in 1904 by Serrano Wright. This last paper is a four-page, four-column paper 10 1/2 x 17 1/2 inches in size. In the issue of Monday, August 6, 1904, there is on the first page one advertisement, 5 1/2 inches in length, "Notes on the Parables of the New Testament, by Rowen Ballou, ordained pastor of the united societies of Barnard, Woodstock, Hartland, Bethel and Bridgewater. Price, single, 50 cents." On the last page there is an advertisement of school books, the first of which is "White Psalms and Hymns"; and then, in order, "Hannah More on Female Education"; "Pike's Arithmetic; grammars, etc., etc., with sealing wax, red and black"; Dutch quills; sand and sand boxes (the blotting paper of those days), etc., etc. There is on the third page the notice that a petition will be preferred to the next legislature for a tax of three cents per acre on the town of Orange in Orange county, for the purpose of making and repairing roads and bridges. Three-fourths of a column on the past page is taken for an advertisement of nitery tickets for sale at the office of The Weekly Wanderer, in the interests of a canal in Massachusetts. A man in Brainerd advertised that his wife, Suke, has utterly refused to bed and board and live with him, and so he will pay no debts of her making after that date, etc., etc., and this is his farewell word, viz.,

"For she will neither spin nor weave, But there she'll sit and take her ease, There she'll sit and pout and grin, As if the Devil had entered in; For she would neither knit or sew, But all in rage I had to go, So farewell, Suke, and farewell wife, Till you can live a better life." Yes, a very rich treat, friend Perkins, has thus been given us, and all the better for its age.

GROTON.

Death of Mrs. Rose L. Smith, Mother of Rev. P. A. Smith.

Mrs. Smith, mother of Rev. P. A. Smith, suffered a shock of paralysis late Tuesday evening and lingered in an unconscious state until Friday morning, when she quietly passed away. Funeral services will be held at the parsonage Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the body will be taken to Appleton, Me., Monday for burial. Rose L. Wentworth was born in Hope, Me., February 29, 1820. She was united in marriage in 1850 with William B. Smith, and five children were born to them, three of whom survive her, C. A. Smith of Niagara Falls, Rev. P. A. Smith of this place and one daughter, Mrs. Fred Philbrook of Union, Me. She is also survived by two sons and one brother, whose homes are also in Maine. Her husband died seventeen years ago, and for the past ten years she has made her home with her son, where her gentle words and kind acts will be greatly missed. Since coming to this place with her son's family last April, she has made many friends, who deeply regret her passing. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church and occupied her accustomed pew last Sunday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hart Sunday.

Miss Grace Dennis returned to Tilton, N. H., the first of the week.

Miss Mabel Annie of Peacham is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross.

Mrs. Susie Newton of Manchester, N. H., is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. R. Morrison.
